

STOKE FERRY PARISH COUNCIL

CO-OPTION POLICY

Adopted: Feb 2019;

Next Review Feb 2023

1. Introduction

Although the process for co-option is not prescribed in law, some district councils have provided best practice guidelines. It is especially important that all applicants be treated alike so that the arrangements are seen as open and fair.

The co-option process adopted by Stoke Ferry Parish Council is as follows:

- 1) The Parish Council will advertise the vacancy (or vacancies) on the Parish notice boards and on the website. The notices will include:
 - The Clerk’s contact details so that people considering putting their names forward for co-option can obtain more information on the role of a parish councillor;
 - The co-option process;
 - The closing date for all expressions of interest, if relevant;
 - The date on which the Parish Council intends to make a decision. It is quite in order for Parish Councillors (or indeed any parishioner) to approach individuals to suggest that they might wish to consider putting their names forward for co-option.
- 2) When the applications have been received, the Parish Clerk will consider the application letters/emails, check that the individuals meet the qualification requirements, and confirm that, if successful, they would be willing to accept the Code of Conduct and other obligations of a Parish Councillor.
- 3) All candidates may be asked to submit a short letter with a brief CV giving reasons why they should be considered for the vacancy. These letters will be circulated to Parish Councillors at least seven days prior to the meeting of the full council where the co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and councillors as strictly private and confidential.
- 4) Candidates will be informed of the date of the meeting at which the Parish Council will make its decision on the co-option. Notice of the Intention to Co-opt should be given in the agenda for the meeting of the Parish Council. Candidates will be invited to a private meeting to introduce themselves and provide councillors the opportunity to ask questions of them, or the council can decide to rely on the written submissions alone. The council may only discuss each candidate’s suitability for the role, when he/she and members of the public are not present.
- 5) If there are exactly as many as, or fewer candidates than vacancies, the Parish Council may vote on a composite motion, duly proposed and seconded, that all candidates be co-opted. If there are more duly proposed and seconded candidates than seats, it will be necessary for existing Councillors present at the meeting to vote.

- 6) Councillors shall decide during the meeting whether they wish to vote by showing on hands or vote by secret ballot. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote. The vote will only be cast during the ordinary meeting where discussed and not during the meeting prior.

Arnold Baker's "Local Council Administration" recommends that:

- i) A successful candidate should have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. So if there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and none of them at the first count has an overall majority, the candidate with the fewest votes should be eliminated and the remainder put to the vote again. The process should be repeated as necessary until one candidate has an overall majority.
- ii) Each vacancy should be filled by a separate vote or series of votes. In a small council there is a distinct possibility that there could be a tie for last place in the first round of voting, leaving the candidate for elimination to be decided by lots.

After the Vote

- i) The clerk will notify the candidates of the results by email, as soon as is reasonably possible (usually within 24 hours), unless they are present in the meeting.
- ii) Successfully co-opted candidates become councillors in their own right, with immediate effect, and are no different to any other member. As such, they must sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office and Code of Conduct, and the Registration of Interests Form at their first meeting, or within 28 calendar days of election, whichever is the sooner. Their term of office runs until the next four elections (every four years) for the Parish Council.

2) Six Months Leading to An Election

In the six months leading to an election the Stoke Ferry Parish Council is not obliged to co-opt to vacancies.

3) Communication of Policy

A copy of this policy statement will be available on the Stoke Ferry Parish Council Website.

Employees and Members have a responsibility to ensure that the Parish Council complies; not only with the legal requirements, but with the achievement of the policy, and their active involvement is encouraged.
